Overview of the BritRail London Plus Pass

What Is It?

- A rail pass designed for non-UK residents, intended for visitors who want to base themselves in London and explore the surrounding region via train.
- It provides unlimited travel on National Rail services within its defined boundaries, covering a wide swathe of Southeast England—including London Overground and Elizabeth Line services within that area.

Coverage Area

The pass is valid up to locations such as:

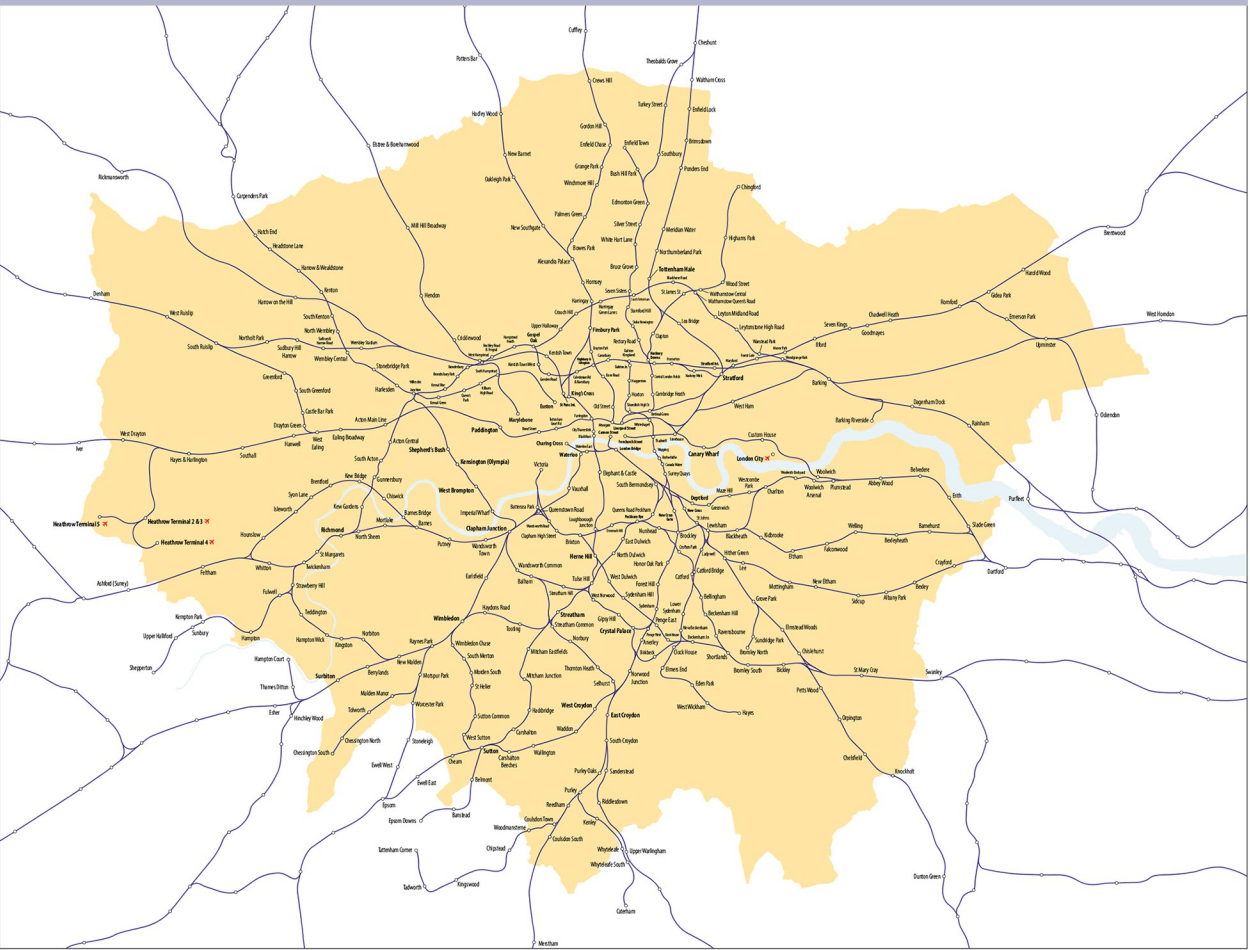

- Harwich, King's Lynn, Huntingdon, Bedford, Long Buckby, Stratford-upon-Avon, Worcester Foregate Street, Bedwyn, Salisbury, Bristol Temple Meads, and Weymouth.
- It includes Heathrow Express, Gatwick Express, and Stansted Express, as part of a day's use.

Excluded/not covered:

- Eurostar services;
- London Underground (Tube), buses, DLR, trams;
- Sleeper services like the Caledonian or Night Riviera;
- Road transfers to/from airports, heritage trains, or services outside the National Rail network.

Please note: There is overlap between parts of the National Rail network and TfL services.
